SOLAR WORKSHOP 2010

The California Solar Energy Collaborative will hold its second annual workshop on April 6, 2011 at the Alumni Center, University of California Davis. The general theme of the solar workshop is further development and deployment of solar energy in California. The Collaborative's annual workshop will provide the attendees with the opportunity to learn about and discuss innovative ways to develop and expand the utilization of solar power in California. The one-day solar workshop will cover: an overview of current policy and environmental regulatory issues, existing and emerging photovoltaic technology developments in California, and concentrated solar power.

Date & Time: April 6, 2011 from 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM

Location: Alumni Center, UC Davis, Davis, California

MINI-COURSE IN EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES

This mini-course is part of the 2011 Solar Workshop and is free to all the participants who register for the Workshop. The course will be held on April 5, 2011 from 9:00 AM to 11:50 AM.

The course will consist of 3 presentations as follow:

9:00 AM – 9:50 AM: “Organic photovoltaic design and outlook”, Prof. Adam Moule, UC Davis

10:00 AM – 10:50 AM: “Fundamentals and State of the Art of Silicon Solar Cells”, Prof. Charles Hunt, UC Davis

11:00 AM – 11:50 AM: “Thermodynamically efficient solar concentrators”, Prof. Roland Winston, UC Merced.

Date & Time: April 5, 2011 from 9:00 AM to 11:50 AM.

Location: 1065 Kemper Hall, UC Davis, Davis, California
